World-class Service

Today thousands of financial institutions are capturing check images in their branches, eliminating expensive courier contracts and paper-intensive processing delays. The resulting efficiencies have created significant cost savings and streamlined back office item processing. Select Capture, Cachet's branch capture solution, provides tools to capture high volumes of check images at your institution.

Select Capture offers the flexibility to meet your current needs and the scalability to grow with your remote deposit capture strategy. Select Capture is a winning investment for both your financial institution's internal operations and the customer experience. It will streamline how your institution processes checks, minimize operating expenses and reduce expensive courier costs.

Benefits to Your Financial Institution

- ◆ Speed crediting to your commercial and consumer depository accounts
- ◆ Extend deposit cut-off times with the efficiency of image capture and processing
- ◆ Increase accuracy improve your bottom line
- ◆ Reduce errors and branch workload with automations
- ◆ Advanced IQA technologies mitigate errors and improve quality
- ◆ Transmit data throughout the day, smoothing staffing needs and reducing courier trips
- ◆ Earlier processing simplifies end-of-day settlement between branches and central processing
- ◆ Limit the opportunity for fraud
- ◆ Image capture reduces manual proof and eliminates encoding
- ◆ Reduce overhead in operations, transportation, and central storage
- ◆ Integration with core providers

By spreading check processing work more evenly across the day you can eliminate peak staffing and deadline challenges. Achieve a stronger competitive service advantage by extending branch hours and improving funds availability for your customers. Select Capture also provides more accurate and timely responses to customer service inquiries, minimizes check handling and potential posting errors, and addresses the many risks and business challenges associated with manual processing.

Select Capture gives you the complete flexibility to determine when deposits are scanned, stored and transmitted to your central operations. With Select Capture, all that is required at the branch is a check image scanner and a computer with access to the Internet.
